ABOUT US

Meet the Innkeepers Erica and Daniel Lumpert

Erica and Daniel Lumpert, the visionary owners of Inn at Amaris Farms, bring their lifelong dream to life with a charming 16-acre modern farmhouse bed and breakfast in Weaverville, NC, just 15 minutes from Asheville. Having met in New York in 1988, raised twins, and traveled extensively, the couple transformed their passion for hospitality into a serene retreat, opening the inn in the summer of 2023 after a dedicated search for the perfect property. With Daniel's experience from a Savannah B&B internship and Erica's background in concierge security, they offer impeccable southern farm hospitality that earns a 5-star reputation. Perfect hosts for intimate gatherings, they specialize in hosting elopements, micro-weddings, and special events, providing a picturesque backdrop with a wraparound porch, indoor/outdoor dining areas, and assistance ensuring unforgettable memories for a farm-to-table experience.
